

A Tower for Two

Unit 1 • Week 1 • Tuesday Storytelling

Eli hurried to the Blocks center. He had an idea for the tallest tower in the whole classroom.

He placed one block down, then another, and another. Soon the tower reached almost to his shoulders.

Nora came over carrying two long blocks. “Can I build too?” she asked.

Eli looked at his tower. He had planned to build it all by himself. Then he looked at Nora’s blocks.

“Maybe we can make a door,” Eli said.

Nora carefully placed one block on each side. Eli added another across the top. Now their tower had a doorway.

“What should be inside?” Nora asked.

“A school!” Eli said.

They added a classroom, a playground, and a tiny road. When one wall fell down, they rebuilt it together.

At clean-up time, Eli looked at what they had made.

“My tower changed,” he said.

Nora smiled. “It became our school.”

Eli smiled too. Building together had made his idea even bigger.
