

The Mango for Mia

Unit 1 • Week 2 • Monday Storytelling

Mia was building a pretend picnic in Dramatic Play. She put a plate on the table, added a cup, and placed one bright yellow pretend mango in the middle.

Jayden came over. "That mango looks delicious," he said.

Mia looked at the mango. There was only one. She thought for a moment, then picked up a pretend knife. "We can share it," she said.

Mia pretended to cut the mango into two pieces. She put one piece on Jayden's plate and one on her own.

Soon another friend joined them with pretend bananas. Another brought pretend bread. Everyone added something to the picnic.

"Look at all the food we have together!" Jayden said.

Mia smiled. One pretend mango had turned into a whole pretend meal because everyone shared what they had.
