

The Outfit That Felt Just Right

Unit 1 • Week 2 • Wednesday Storytelling

Nia opened the classroom dress-up basket and found a sparkly scarf, a soft hat, and a bright blue vest.

She tried the hat first. “This makes me feel silly,” she said with a giggle.

Then she wrapped the scarf around her shoulders. “This makes me feel fancy.”

Her friend Owen chose a firefighter jacket. “This makes me feel brave,” he said.

Nia looked at all the choices. She put on the blue vest, the sparkly scarf, and the soft hat—all at the same time.

Owen smiled. “That is a Nia outfit!”

Nia looked in the mirror and smiled too. Everyone could choose clothes that helped them show something about themselves.
